

PGA Championship Collection 2010

1.5 linear feet, 3 archive boxes

ABSTRACT: Collection includes articles from the Sheboygan Press newspaper, assorted promotional materials, and commemorative memorabilia of the PGA Championship held at Whistling Straits 2010, in Haven, Wisconsin.

ACCESS RESTRICTIONS: There are no access restrictions on the materials and the collection is open to all members of the public in accordance with state law. However, the researcher assumes full responsibility for confirming with the laws of libel, privacy and copyright, which may be involved in the use of the collection. (Wisconsin Statutes 19.21 – 19.39).

ARRANGEMENT: The files are organized chronologically.

ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY: The 86th PGA Championship marked a long-awaited return of a major golf tournament to the state of Wisconsin. With the vision of Herbert V. Kohler, Jr. and the design of Pete Dye, Whistling Straits was roughed-in in 1997.

In 1999 the Club Professional Championship was held at Whistling Straits along with the U.S. Open. Kohler accepted the 2004 PGA Championship offer and then accepted the 92nd PGA Championship in 2010.

COLLECTION CITATION: This collection should be cited as: PGA Championship Collection 2010. Mead Public Library. Manuscript Collections.

PROCESSING: Robert Thomes and Shawn Linsmeier processed the collection at the Mead Public Library, June – September 2010.
